As the holiday season arrives and we take advantage of the warm weather to visit beauty spots and the coast, I would like to remind you that it can take less than one minute for an opportunist thief to steal from your unattended vehicle. When you park your car away from home try to avoid places that are unattended or concealed from public view. Take all your belongings with you and if you can't then lock them in the boot out of site. Always lock your vehicle and use an alarm. For more crime prevention advice on this and many other matters visit our website

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

It has been a busy and proactive month for officers covering the Dereham area. The Beat Managers have been targeting their Safer Neighbourhood Action Panel (SNAP) priorities which has included a joint operation with colleagues from Roads Policing with 22 drivers dealt with for a variety of motoring offences including speeding. Your local Beat Managers have also been working with the Ministry of Defence tackling speeding, drink driving and substance misuse. You may have seen our officers out and about on their #ParkWalkTalk foot patrols while they carried out reassurance patrols as lockdown restrictions have eased and also in relation to the European Football Championships. To hear full details and updates on the priorities please join us at the August SNAP meeting on 4th August.

CURRENT NEIGHBOURHOOD PRIORITIES

- Tackling Drug Misuse
- Tackling Speeding in the Villages
- Tackling ASB in Dereham

DATE OF NEXT SNAP MEETING

Wednesday 4th August 2021 at 7pm

A decision on whether this meeting will be held online or face to face will be published in July
